

Meralco receives Asian Excellence Recognition Awards

Meralco received international recognition for its investor communications, corporate social responsibility (CSR) and financial performance at the 5th Asian Excellence Recognition Awards 2015 and 12th Anniversary of Corporate Governance (CG Asia).

The Company's awards are:

- Best Investor Relations (IR) Company (Philippines)
- Best CEO Oscar Reyes
- Best CFO Betty Siy-Yap
- Best IR Company Professional (Philippines) Rafael Andrada
- Best Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

The awards were based on both the scores and interviews from data submitted by CG Asia readers (investors, analyst, fund managers, practitioners, directors, etc.). Atty. Jocelyn C. Villar-Altamira, Head of Meralco Corporate Governance and Compliance, received the award on behalf of Meralco in an awards dinner held April 10, 2015 in JW Marriott Hotel, Hong Kong, hosted by CG Asia.

CG Asia is a publication that aims to raise corporate governance standards in Asia. It caters to the most important companies in Asia and is a source of insightful editorial content regarding developments, legislation, case studies, and other matters relevant to corporate governance in Asia Pacific.