

April 1, 2016

Meralco Conducts Corporate Governance Enhancement Session for Suppliers:

A culture of Good Governance, the ultimate aim of the Corporate Governance Office, is something that cannot be achieved without cooperation from everyone. This includes employees, officers, directors, and yes, even our suppliers. To foster this, the Corporate Governance Office conducted a Corporate Governance Enhancement Session for our Suppliers on March 21, 2016. The Top 100 Suppliers were invited to the talk conducted by the leaders of the Corporate Governance Office, Atty Jocelyn Villar-Altamira and Ms. Ma. Lair Ambrocio. Attendees were treated to a refresher course on Meralco's Corporate Governance policies with a special emphasis on the Suppliers Business Conduct and the Gifts Policies. Through these tailor-made training sessions, the Corporate Governance Office aims to better teach and inspire each member of the One Meralco family to work together towards a culture of Good Governance.

Atty. Jocelyn Villar-Altamira, Head of Meralco CGCO, addresses representatives of the top 100 suppliers of Meralco