Meralco conducts onboarding program for newly elected director, Mr. Elpidio L. Ibañez

In line with the Company's commitment to strengthening its culture of good governance, the Office of the Compliance Officer and the Corporate Governance Office welcomed the newly elected Mr. Elpidio Ibañez to the Board of Directors with an in-house onboarding program which incorporated briefings on the Company's businesses, stakeholders, and governance practices last June 25, 2018 from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm at the Manila Room, 14th Floor Lopez Building, Ortigas Ave., Pasig City.

Subject matter experts from the Corporate Governance and Compliance Office and Strategy and Business Development Office were present to give in-depth discussions on Meralco's Business and Overall Structure, Corporate Governance—which included talks on the Board Structure, Duties and Responsibilities, Board Committees, and Corporate Governance Policies and Programs—and Corporate Disclosures.

Corporate Strategy SAVP and Head, Mr. Ralph Menchavez, Corporate Governance and Compliance AVP and Head, Atty. Lani Altamira, and Corporate Compliance Manager, Mr. Thom Ryan Ortega headed the discussions with Mr. Ibañez.

Through this effort, the Company aims to promote good governance for the continuous improvement of Company operations, breakthrough performance and sustainable growth that will serve the best interest of all its stakeholders.
