Meralco joins 2nd Governance, Ethics & Compliance Officers' Summit

Representatives from Meralco's Corporate Governance and Compliance Office (CGCO) took part in the Good Governance Advocates and Practitioners' (GGAPP) 2nd Governance, Ethics and Compliance (GEC) Officers' Summit last June 7-8, 2018 at the Taal Vista Hotel, Tagaytay City.

The summit, bannered as "Creating a Legacy of Good Governance," was participated by professionals working mainly under governance, ethics, and compliance committees and offices, bringing individuals together in order to tackle practices, prospects, and improvements of the GEC field. The event also served as a networking exchange which helped promote cooperation between officers hailing from the GEC field.

CGCO officers, Atty. Jocelyn Villar-Altamira, Atty. Lester Bernardo, Jr., and Thom Ryan Ortega, represented Meralco at the summit. Atty. Villar-Altamira and Atty. Bernardo, Jr. also led discussions alongside other officers from different companies about Whistleblowing Programs and Mechanisms. Other topics discussed included the results of the Global Economic Crime and Fraud Survey, top PLCs and low scorers, and what is to come for the regulatory outlook.
